KOREAN BAD MAN EMPTIES GUN AT CITY POLICEMEN

Cornered at Vineyard and River streets at 4 o'clock this morning, Yee Yo Kuek, a Korean desperado, emptied his revolver at Officers Barbosa and Luhl, and then escaped unhurt in the midst of a rain of bullets from the officers' revolvers.

Detectives Swift and Belmont joined the chase after the Korean when they were attracted by the pistol shots, and in response to a telephone message from Policeman Ferry, who was awakened by the shots, Captain Daniel Kamauha joined the other officers at the scene of the revolver battle.

Yee Yo Kuek has a bad and long record as a criminal. About six months ago he shot a Japanese whose store he was trying to rob, wounding the man in the back. Before this he shot and slightly wounded a Korean in whose house he was trying to hide from the officers. He has broken jail twice. The first time he escaped from the city jail, and the last time he got away from the county jail where he was sent five months ago to serve a year for burglary. He had only served a short time when he escaped.

Chief Clerk J. K. Evans is getting ready for a hard week, as the smoker preparations will keep him busy from now until November 29.

Gen. S. I. Johnson will return from Hawaii Tuesday, his last inspection taking place Sunday. When Lieut. W. C. Whitener, U. S. A., will return is not known, though he may come back with the general.

Capt. Redington is back on duty, and says he is glad after the trip to Florida to get somewhere where he will not always be moving or getting ready to move. In the seven weeks the rifle team was away the men covered about 10,000 miles, which meant a lot of traveling.

GOVERNOR'S CASE AGAINST JUDGE IS POSTPONED

Hearing by Circuit Judge Ashford of the motion by the governor and the land commissioner to strike a large portion of the allegations and material from Judge T. B. Stuart's petition for writ of alternative mandamus, filed against them, today was continued until 10 o'clock next Saturday morning.

The motion for a continuance was made by Attorney Lorin Andrews, one of counsel for Judge Stuart, who suggested 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. He said he wanted time to look the motion over, as the case involved a "vital question." Attorney General J. M. Stainback asked for a continuance until Saturday, as he is engaged both morning and afternoon in the Rapid Transit case.

Hearing on the demurrers filed by the governor and the land commissioner also will be heard next Saturday.

GEORGE WILLIAMS OF HILO DIES IN HOSPITAL

[Special Star-Bulletin Wire]
HILO, Hawaii, Nov. 20.—George Williams, the local land agent, died early this morning at Hilo hospital. The funeral will be held under Masonic auspices today.

News of the death of Mr. Williams, sub-agent of the territorial department of public lands at Hilo, was received this morning in a wireless message by Land Commissioner Joshua D. Fackerell. Mr. Williams was about 50 years of age, and an old resident in the islands. He had been in the service of the land department for the last 15 years. At the time of his death he held the office of sub-agent for districts Nos. 1 and 2. He is survived by a married daughter. Mr. Williams had not been in good health for some time, but his death was due directly to pneumonia, which he contracted about a week ago. According to Commissioner Tucker, Mr. Williams was one of the most faithful men that he has ever had in office.

CRIMSON WINS FROM YALE BY RECORD SCORE

had demonstrated its superiority in such convincing fashion that the best of the Yale men in the great crowd stood hoping for was that their team might score on the victors.

The weather was fine today and the stadium presented a brilliant scene, with the colors of Eli and John Harvard flaunted by their confident, cheering supporters. Previous to the game the betting was 5 to 4 with Harvard favorite, and Yale was given more than a fighting chance to win on account of its score against Princeton.

Atherton Gilman of Honolulu played the game at left tackle for Harvard. The Harvard team went through the four periods of battling without any noteworthy physical injury. Way and Guernsey of Yale were hurt and taken from the game. Scovil replaced Guernsey at fullback and proved to be the only effective man on the Yale team at advancing the ball. Even he was not able to gain consistently.

A gale blew throughout the contest, the only marring weather feature. It made judging of kicks difficult and at times worked against the kickers. Harvard won the toss and took advantage of the wind and within a few minutes was grinding out the touchdowns. The Harvard offense surprised the critics with its consistency. Line smashes, end-runs, mass and open plays, forward passing and the kicking game, were all well-developed.

The line-up:

JAIL TERMS FOR CASH AND CULLEN

was staying at the Riedel home on the night of the alleged assaults, and that he had seen Cash and Cullen drive up in a machine.

"Cash stayed in the car," he testified. "I never saw him get out of the car, nor did I know whether he hit her or not. Riedel, he went in and phoned for the police, see?"

"When did you make up your mind to be a witness for the defense in this case?" shouted City Attorney Brown.

Wilcott said it was only a short time ago. Brown wanted to know when the Riedels had told Wilcott to "get out of the house." The witness answered that it was in November.

"Were you ever a witness before?" asked Brown.

"No, sir, I—"

"Yes you were," interrupted Brown. "You were the star witness before the grand jury."

Cullen, called to the stand, said that he was somewhat under the influence of liquor when he went to Riedel's house. He said Cash drove him there, and that he did not know he was going.

"Riedel came out and spoke to him," said Cullen. "He turned around and walked into the house. Then I got out and walked up to the house. I wanted to apologize to Riedel for being there."

Cullen added that Mrs. Riedel told him he could not see her husband, and had pushed him down the steps and out to the automobile, and then told him and Cash to get out. He declared that he and Riedel "never came together," and that he did not strike Mrs. Riedel. Cash, he added, remained in the car.

"Then if you did not commit the assault, why did you come in here and plead guilty?" asked Attorney Brown.

"I was excited when I pleaded guilty," answered Cullen.

Cash was not called to the stand. Mrs. Riedel said that when her husband went out to the machine, Cullen said, "You are getting high-toned and don't want to know me any more," and then grabbed Riedel by the shoulders. Riedel went into the house, she added, and wanted to know "what Cash was doing there." Then Cullen came up the steps and said he wanted to see Riedel, the witness continued. She added that Cullen struck her on the chest as he passed her.

"There have been too many invasions of private houses by police officers lately," said Judge Ashford. "If I inflict a money penalty in these cases it would be a travesty of justice."

Cash was indicted by the grand jury last Thursday on a charge of having stolen Jack Lucas' automobile from the Schuman garage. It is alleged that it was in this machine that he and Cullen visited the Riedel home. Cash reserved plea until 2 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon.

BEST LIVER AND BOWEL LAXATIVE FOR FAMILY USE

"Cascarets" Regulate Women, Men and Children Without Injury

Take When Bilious, Headachy, For Colds, Bad Breath, Sour Stomach

Invaded or rusty, barren pills, salts, castor oil or dangerous calomel, why don't you keep Cascarets handy in your home? Cascarets act on the liver and thirty feet of bowels so gently you don't realize you have taken a cathartic, but they act thoroughly and can be depended upon when a good liver and bowel cleansing is necessary—they move the bile and poison from the bowels without gripping and sweeten the stomach. You eat one or two at night, like candy, and you wake up feeling fine; the headache, biliousness, bad breath, coated tongue, sour stomach, constipation, or bad cold disappears. Mothers should give cross, sick, feverish or bilious children a whole Cascaret any time—they are harmless and safe for the little folks.

BIG COMPANIES LOSERS IN TAX APPEAL CASES

In decisions which have been handed down by the supreme court, the Hawi Mill and Plantation Company and the Union Mill Company, both of North Kohala, Hawaii, are losers in their appeals to the local tribunal from the findings of the West Hawaii tax appeal court. When the Hawi Mill Company returned $550,000 as being the aggregate value of its combined property, Tax Assessor Ollie T. Shipman assessed it at $1,000,000. The company took the matter to the tax appeal court of the third judicial circuit, and this court fixed the value of the property at $300,000. An appeal to the supreme court from this finding was then taken by the company, and the local tribunal sustained the tax appeal court.

The procedure in the case of the Union Mill Company was the same as that taken by its neighbor. The company was the same as that taken by its neighbor. The company returned the aggregate value of its combined property at $200,000 but the assessor raised it to $300,000, the raise being sustained by the tax appeal court, and also by the local supreme court.

Detailed information regarding alleged conditions at the Volcano House at Lihue, and the source of the information, will be asked by the board of liquor license commissioners from Dr. John W. Wadman, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, before it proceeds in the matter.
